

Beauregard Parish Students of the Year 2016-2017

The Beauregard Parish Students of the Year were presented to the School Board on February 6, 2017, by their respective principals. The Student of the Year program is sponsored annually by the Louisiana State Department of Education to recognize outstanding students in fifth, eighth, and twelfth grades. These students will represent the district at the regional level program. They are (from left) Hannah Lewis, Beauregard Parish Junior High Student of the Year, Baylie Menard, Beauregard Parish Elementary Student of the Year, and Kailey Bailey, Beauregard Parish High School Student of the Year.
