

Beauregard Parish Students of the Year 2018-2019

The 2018-2019 Beauregard Parish Students of the Year were recognized at the March board meeting. The State Department of Education hosts this program annually to recognize outstanding students selected from fifth, eighth, and twelfth grades. They must have maintained at 3.5 GPA or higher, be active in school and community activities, and be involved in leadership positions for their school and community. The Beauregard Parish Elementary Student of the Year is Jed Henry of South Beauregard Upper Elementary. The Beauregard Parish Junior High Student of the Year is Victoria Mitchell of South Beauregard High School. The Beauregard Parish High School Student of the Year is Collin Cooper of Merryville High School.